Annual Report Due Date 3/15/2013
Forfeiture Date 6/15/2013

Dear Business Customer:

Our records indicate that your business has not yet filed an annual report and is currently in delinquent status. To return your business to active and good standing status, you must file the annual report and pay the annual report fee before the forfeiture date listed above.

The annual report—required by state law for business entities registered with the Secretary of State's office—requires that you provide address and management information. It does not require you to make financial calculations, and you do not have to complete your taxes before filing the annual report.

File your annual report online at www.sos.ks.gov

Filing online (electronically) has many advantages: it is easy, immediate, you may print a copy for your records, and your filing fees may be lower than if you file by paper. To file:

- Click on Business Filing Center on the left side of the page
- Click on File an Annual Report under Business Entities in the middle of the page

Review your filing status any time at www.sos.ks.gov

Learn whether a recent filing was accepted or whether you still need to file your annual report:

- Click on Business Filing Center
- Click on Perform a Business Entity Search
- Click on Business Entity Database

Your business will forfeit if the correct annual report and fee are not received by the Secretary of State on or before the forfeiture date listed above. If your business forfeits you may owe penalty fees when you reinstate.

For more information about filing requirements, please visit www.sos.ks.gov or call (785) 296-4564.

Sincerely,

Kris W. Kobach
Secretary of State
